I am writing to protest the slaughter of downed animals. Downed animals experience tremendous pain and suffering. No living creature deserves to be treated so inhumane. These animals are sick. They also are injured and abused. The conditions are perfect for unsanitary, unhealthy, and unsafe meat. This meat is not safe for consumption due to the trauma these animals go through. Downed animals should not be forced to move by means of dragging or pushing. Animals in this condition should be treated with mercy, not forced into more suffering. Animals that end up as human consumption products still deserve to be well treated. The slaughter of downed animals needs to stop.

Sincerly,

Laura Melyne Boyd
