Good morning –

Please see FDA's information sheet on payment to research subjects. (recently updated).

Search for FDA Guidance Documents > Payment and Reimbursement to Research Subjects - Information Sheet

Kind regards,

The OGCP Group

Subject: Raffle of Gifts Cards For Research Participants Question

Is it ethical to raffle gift cards as participation incentive for a study with minimal to no risk to the subjects? With the raffle, some participants would receive payment but others would not. Though, the raffle will be completely random.

Thanks,
