Dear Commission Henney:

We have serious concerns on genteticaily engineered foods:

1) no independent safety testing to evaluate their effect on human health or the environment has been done;
2) G.E. foods are not labelled;
3) Without labelling & pre-market safety standards we do not know exactly what we are buying and eating.

We want G.E. foods tested and labelled. We want a moratorium imposed until they are proven safe.

We are appalled the government has chosen to inflict G.E. foods on the general public. They have no right to do so.

Sincerely,
Rita E. Bell (Ms.)
