Dear Ms. Henney,

It makes absolutely no sense!

2621 '00 JAN -6 A11:27

The use of antibiotics in livestock production keeps the pharmaceutical + agricultural companies rich + happy, while people suffer from bacterial diseases that can't be treated! The emergence of antibiotic-resistant diseases has been scientifically linked, if not proven to be linked, to agriculture's over-use of antibiotics.

Please learn from the European Union! Ban animal use of growth-promoting antibiotics used in human medicine!
