Sirs:

This is written to encourage humane treatment of poultry. Caging, debeaking, etc. are bad enough, but forced molting, debeaking are diabolical!

I've had chickens for nearly 30 years and have made pets of many of them; they are more intellegent than most people would think. They can display affection for their owners & even become jealous when their attention is threatened by another fowl.

God gave mankind superior intellegence — to care for not oppress the lower creatures. We will all stand before the judgment seat of God after death (Hebrews 9:27
