To: FDA May 17, 2000

Dear friends:

Birth control pills and other chemical contraceptives must never be made available OTC.

They are too dangerous and have too many side effects for women and for young teens in particular. A Doctor's prescription is vital.

Margaret Karam

Margaret Karam
206 Cardinal Rd
Hyde Park, NY 12538-2903

OON-1256

CH 28