Dear U.S. FDA,

I'm writing to you in effort to stop the mishandling of cows used for meat. I recently read a letter sent by e-mail about the horrible treatment of Beef cattle. I was so hurt. I believe that the person who sent me this information is trustworthy and honest. I now understand that "downed" animals are even slaughtered and given to schools for lunch programs. Do you know how you are responsible for suffering? how can you not know? or just not care? Maybe I am sensative, and I feel a lot of compassion for everybody, but I like it that way. I also feel a lot of joy. So please stop hurting my animals. It hurts me too, so badly. We are their care takers, not their violent superiors. If you need advise on how to stop the pain, and help in taking action, please contact me. Or any organization like PETA or even NAFTA would help or NOFA.
