I am writing to express that I support the Farm Sanctuary's petition to prohibit the slaughter of downed animals. I feel it is wrong to allow sick animals to suffer for days without food, water + most importantly proper veterinary care. Also, if these animals are sick then I feel it is extremely wrong to slaughter these animals to use the meat for human consumption. I feel it should be law that all sick animals should be examined by a veterinarian before a decision about the animal being "put down" is made. If the animal is too sick or too injured to be saved as far as the veterinarian states then the animal should be immediately euthanized not just thrown to the side to die in pain + suffering. I feel very strongly on this issue and
