Please remove genetically modified foods + crops from the market until they are proven safe for people and the environment. The Precautionary Principle is necessary in this situation.
Corporate profit making leaves millions of people unknowing guinea pigs. Consequences could be disastrous to the environment and human health. Mandatory testing with non ambiguous determinations are needed. thank you

C 338