Dear Mr. Jaffe,

I am writing in regards to the intentional mistreatment of hens. I hardly know where to begin, the whole situation is so miserable.

Forced molting is a story that should be put on the front page of every paper in the country.

How can you people, in good conscience, subject these animals to this kind of treatment.

Right now, Great Britain and most European countries do not allow food deprivation for more than 24 hrs. Yet, the U.S. has no laws protecting these poor birds, and millions are now being force-molted.

I'm sickened at these houses and their greed - and you assist in this greed by allowing this to continue.

Sir, there are growing numbers of us fighting this kind of exploitation, and won't stop till these kinds of things are no longer happening.

I pray you'll consider my words, and I thank you for reading my letter.

Sincerely,
