Dear Commissioner Henney,

I am concerned about the safty of the food I eat. It is my right to know if the food I am eating has been genetically altered. Such foods pose unknown risks to the environment, to family farms & to my health.

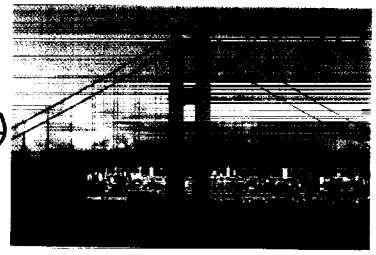
In May a lawsuit was filed challenging the FDA's policy not to require labels on transgenic foods. I support the demands of this lawsuit for safty testing & complete & prominent labels.

M Flanigan

C 5150

92N-0139

M Flanigan
1501 Leavenworth St #12
San Francisco, Ca 94109



- 16-78

Dr Jane E Henney, Commissioner
Food & Drug Administration
5600 Fishers Lane HF-1
Rockville, MD.
2085

recycled