Dear Commissioner Henney:

I'm very concerned that I may not know when I am buying genetically altered food. Because of the dangers to my health + the environment that are unknown about using genetically engineered substances, I want labels that tell me what has been altered so I can avoid buying them. I want the FDA to require labeling of genetically engineered food and even to limit or stop genetic engineering of foods. Thank you.

Joan Giehl
22603 90th Ave W
Edmonds, WA 98026

C5151

92N-0139

EVERETT, WA
PM
3
16 SEP
1999

USA
20
1996

16-70

Dr. Jane Henney, Coordinator
Food & Drug Administration
5600 Fishers Lane, HF-1
Rockville, MD 20857