Dear Mr Jaffe -

The conditions that chickens & other animals are subjected to in our society today is too horrible to find the right words for. The people who are responsible for such misery are the lowest form of animal on earth & to me should not be allowed to exist. Enclosed is a picture from P.E.T.A. magazine showing what the poor creatures are forced to endure for egg production. It makes me ashamed of being a member of the human race.

P.S. I have not eaten meat of any kind for the last 3 years + now eggs will be added to the list.

Almost unrecognizable as hens after a year in a laying cage.
As only females produce eggs, 280 million [illegible] chicks per year are shoved into plastic bags and left to suffocate or be [illegible] to death.
