Dear Sirs/Madam:

Please — as a nurse, consumer and parent, I urge you to obviously label as "IRRADIATED" any product you so tamper with: and there should not be an expiration date.

I strongly believe that big business is only doing this to increase their incomes, decrease any safety measures/inspections needed in meat production. They should be concentrating on more humane and CLEANER conditions for the animals..

Sincerely,
Jane Vite, R.N., M.Ed, MSc.
