Dear Mr Jaffee:

Each step to Lessen The Torture of animals, in research Labs & else where, has been a painful inch by inch process; it seems Mankind adores being absolute barbarians.

I see no need to increase The pain of Hell Laying hens live in - please make every effort to Ban The forced molting of Laying hens -

I doubt if anyone knows of The Long term results of This continual tinkering with life cycles on all our produce & meat products. It cannot be good -

Thank you for your attention,
Donna Taylor
