To whom it may concern:

77% of the U.S. consumers don't want irradiated food. I don't want irradiated food. The children of the future don't want or need it.

There are other way which are better for US citizens to clean up our food supply. Irradiation doesn't benefit people's health or the Don't risk the future generations. Don't fool around.

We appreciate a strong, bold FDA. Stop the irradiation flow into the food supplies of the children
