Dear Dr. Henney:

I would like to petition you as a representative of the U.S. FDA to do all in your power to curtail the overuse of antibiotics in agriculture. I am deeply concerned that the thoughtless use of antibiotics in cattle feed is contributing to the increased resistance of bacteria to antibiotics. Our short-term gains will contribute to our long-term demise. I ask you to act for our long-term well-being as a people. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Gulley
