Dear Mr. Jaffe,

I was reading in People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals magazine about the forced molting of hens. I don't eat eggs and I don't eat chickens, and as an animal lover, I support the petition to ban the forced molting of layer hens (docket 98P-0203/CP). To make these poor, spent creatures go through one more laying cycle by torturing them with forced molting just so the "farmers" can get a few extra dollars before slaughtering these ~~hens~~ hens is criminal. Please support the petition to stop the forced molting of hens. It's undeniable animal abuse. That's against the law. Isn't it?

Sincerely,
Renay Koscielski
