Dear Dr. Henney,

I have recently learned that you might be of influence in requiring genetically engineered foods to be labeled. I would strongly advocate for this. If the product is safe and more acceptable to the public, this label will be a draw for these items. Having family with food allergies has made me nervous about risking their lives because of unlabeled foreign allergens being placed in foods they usually tolerate. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Mary Rutt

1805 '98 JUN 24 P1:37

92N-0139

C 5631

MARY L RUTT
3415 SE KELLY ST
PORTLAND OR 97202

PORTLAND OR PM

16.70

USA 20

Dr. J. E. Henny,
Comissioner, FDA
Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD.
20857