Re: Docket # 99D-0557

To Whom it May Concern:

When does intelligence take over? With all the marvelous technology, why is the FDA resorting to the use of denotransplants? We must educate our nation (beginning with the school systems) to lead lives that will prevent the horrors of disease. We must also educate in the direction of organ donation.

The risks of viral transmission must be great when using animals as transplant donors.

How can we, a Nation of intelligence, opportunity and power be behind 40 countries of Europe who are recommending forever a ban on xenotransplants? spri
