To Whom It May Concern: 7/5/99

I want labeling of all irridiated food to be mandatory! ~~The Food~~ I want the FDA to stop being a lap dog for the food industry and for once stick up for consumer rights. We should have the right to know if our food has been irradiated. I do not want to eat irradiated food in any form. If you are too whimpy to ban irradiated food then at least have the courtesy to require that it be labeled.
