Dear Ms. Henney.

I am writing to you as a concerned citizen that foods that have been genetically altered and produced are reaching the marketplace without proper Labeling.

Please do something about this. We as a people should have knowledge, accurate knowledge about the foods we are choosing to put into our bodies.

My health and the health of my family is important to me. So I wait to hear from you as to the steps that are being taken to ensure that genetically engineered foods are properly Labeled.

Thank you for your prompt attention to my request and remain

Yours truly
