Dear Personnel,

3631 '99 AUG -5 P1:59

I am writing to express my strong opposition to the practice of "forced moulting."

Since I found out about it, I have not eaten any eggs. I can't believe that any intelligent, compassionate person would eat eggs if they knew the details of this cruel practice.

Some people justify treating animals cruelly by pointing out that it is stated in the Bible that God gave man "dominion" over animals. However, one should not interpret "dominion" to mean a license to torture. Dominion without caring is not what the Bible intended.

Please look within your own hearts and realize that "forced moulting" must be ended.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Chris Mandell
