Dear Commissioner Henney,

I want our food to be rBGH free. U.S. dairy farmers already produce an abundance of milk, more in fact, than the public consumes. Therefore, it is not necessary in our cows. Products containing rBGH should at least be labled so consumers would be able to make an informed choice about what products they buy. Thanks,

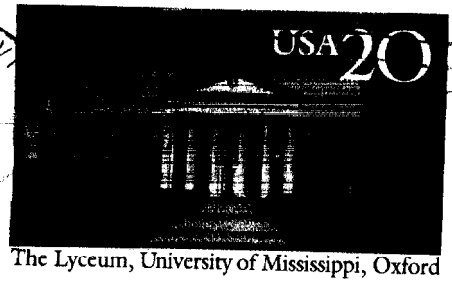
Adrienne Silider

98P-1194

C291

98P-1194

C291



The Lyceum, University of Mississippi, Oxford

Jane E. Henney, M.D.
Commissioner, FDA
200 C. Street, S.W.
Washington D.C.
20204