Dear Commissioner,

I am in complete agreement with Dr. Julian Whitaker, Senators Harkin and Hatch, and Representative DiFazio regarding truthful health claims on the labels of nutritional supplements.

I urge the FDA to promptly approve the claims filed for:

(1) Saw palmetto and the symptoms of benign prostatic hyperplasia C31

(2) Psyllium husk seeds and the rich

99P-3029

of heart disease

(3) Folic acid, Vitamin B6 and Vitamin B1 concerning cardiovascular disease

(4) Vitamin E and the risk of cardio-vascular disease.

The public should be informed of these truthful claims on the labels of these supplements. The public have a right to know this information. They need to know this information.

Urgently,

William L. Dandl
