Dear Honorable Dan Glickman,

I'm writing you this letter to express my concern about genetically altered foods. I do not choose to eat anything that is genetically altered until it is proven to be 100% safe. I want these foods to be clearly labeled so I can make informed choices about the foods I feed my family.

I urge you to please take whatever steps necessary to make sure that genetically foods are clearly labeled. This is only fair to the consumer. Please don't gamble with people's health. Let us have informed choices. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Debi Stikos
