12-16-99

Dear Secretary Shalala:

We are worried about the fact that the labeling requirements for irradiated food may be weakened.

If this is done the only way to know what's in the food we eat will be to grow our own which is impossible for most of us.

Please defend our right to know the ingredients and procedures used in our food.

Sincerely,

Richard + Flora Cole

98N-1038

C4947

SEATTLE WA 981
PM
1999

Donna Shalala, Secretary
U.S. Dept. of Health + Human Services
200 Independence Ave., S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20201

© USPS 1995