Dear Commissioner Henney,

My parents are dairy farmers who work very hard for little money. I would like to see them make more money and the middle man less.

I am also writing for my concern over rBGH. I feel strongly that the drug is not needed and only complicates the system. I urge you to ban rBGH or at least adopt definitive national guidelines regarding labeling. Sincerely, Heidi Haloss Lyndonville, VT

99P-4613

C 382

99P-4613

C 382

Jane E. Henney M.D.
Commissioner, FDA
200 C. Street, S.W.
Washington, DC. 20204