Dear Secretary Shalala,

This letter is written to demand that the Federal Food and Drug Administration require all foods that have undergone the process of irradiation be labelled as irradiated foods. Any irradiated foods that are not packaged must be clearly marked with a sign as being irradiated.

It is the Constitutional right of every American citizen to be fully informed about what foods are irradiated, and being sold in stores across the country. The same requirement should stand for genetically modified foods.

We urge you to uphold and defend our Democratic rights in this crucial health issue.

Sincerely,

Mr. + Mrs. P. Stromberg
