FDA DOCKET: 00N-1571
DATE: August 6, 2002

0888 02 AUG -6 P23

ORDER

On July 26, 2002, Bayer Corporation ("Bayer") filed a Motion for a Protective Order. On August 5, 2002, the Center for Veterinary Medicine ("CVM" or "the Center") filed an Opposition to Bayer's Motion and a Motion for a Limited Protective Order. This Order governs the status of information certified as "CONFIDENTIAL" hereafter provided by a party to this hearing to the other party to this hearing.

Bayer's Motion is DENIED because the protective order sought is overly broad.

The Center for Veterinary Medicine's Motion for a more limited protective order is GRANTED with certain modifications.

It is ORDERED that:

1. Bayer shall provide the estimated 5000 pages of documents subject to its Motion for a Protective Order to the Center by August 12, 2002.
2. Bayer shall provide a particularized claim of confidentiality for each document and if the entire document is not claimed as "CONFIDENTIAL", Bayer shall provide a redacted version of that document to CVM and the Dockets Management branch along with a sealed version of the unredacted documents by August 19, 2002.

00N-1571

3. In the future, any party may designate any document or thing produced by that party as "CONFIDENTIAL" by stamping or otherwise applying the above designation on each page or portion of the document or thing that is claimed to be confidential. In the event it is not practical to affix a sticker or to stamp "CONFIDENTIAL" on an object or document produced, the party seeking protection will take reasonable steps to notify the other party that the object or document is deemed confidential. If such designation does not apply to the entire object or document, a redacted version thereof shall be submitted.
4. For each document or thing, or portion of document or thing, claimed confidential, the party so claiming shall provide a basis for that claim and certify that, to the best of their knowledge, the information contained therein has not been publicly released or otherwise been made available to the public.
5. Any document or thing designated "CONFIDENTIAL" (as well as the material and/or data contained therein) shall remain confidential, and shall be used solely for the purposes of this administrative hearing (including any subsequent appeals) until the Administrative Law Judge, the Commissioner of FDA, or a reviewing court directs otherwise.
6. With respect to any documents or things designated "CONFIDENTIAL," access to such documents or things and the material contained therein shall be limited to the Administrative Law Judge, the Commissioner of FDA or a reviewing court and its officers, and to the attorneys for the parties (including their office associates, legal assistants and stenographic and clerical employees), and to any author or previous recipients of such documents, things or materials. Access may also be given to non-attorney employees of the parties (including non-CVM FDA employees) for purposes of work connected with this hearing. Outside independent persons, e.g., persons not employees of or consultants who are otherwise retained by the either party to furnish technical or expert services and/or give testimony with respect to the subject matter of the hearing may be given access to such documents upon the execution of a "WRITTEN ASSURANCE" as described below. "CONFIDENTIAL" information will be disclosed to such employees and outside persons only to the extent necessary for such persons to perform work in connection with this hearing. Each such outside independent person designated to receive "CONFIDENTIAL" information shall execute a "WRITTEN ASSURANCE" in the form attached, and the party which has provided such person with the "CONFIDENTIAL" information shall provide the executed "WRITTEN ASSURANCE" to the opposing party within ten days of the execution thereof.
7. All persons with access to confidential materials in this hearing shall avoid disclosing confidential material received from another party.
8. All testimony in this action concerning confidential information or trade secrets or documents or things designated "CONFIDENTIAL" shall be held in camera, and subject to this Protective Order. No "confidential" material or testimony is to be included in the evidentiary record for in camera consideration without prior approval of the Administrative Law Judge.

9. "Confidential" documents and things, and any copies or extracts thereof, shall be retained solely in the custody of the attorneys during the pendency of this hearing, except as reasonably necessary to provide access to persons authorized under the provisions of this Protective Order.
10. No party or its attorneys shall in any manner transfer the other party's documents or things designed "CONFIDENTIAL" or copies thereof, or communicate orally or in writing any of the information contained in the documents or things, to any person except as permitted by this Order for purposes directly related to this hearing.
11. The parties will not make use of any confidential business information or trade secrets acquired as a result of the documents or things produced or the testimony given by the parties in this hearing except as necessary in the conduct of this hearing and shall treat such confidential business information and trade secrets in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Protective Order.
12. The designation of any testimony, document, thing or response to an interrogatory as "CONFIDENTIAL" by a party shall not be construed as an agreement by the other party that any such testimony, document, thing or response to an interrogatory is in fact confidential, and such other party shall not have waived its right to challenge any such designation as provided herein.
13. In the event either party disagrees at any stage of these proceedings with a designation by the other party pursuant to this Order, the parties shall first attempt to resolve such dispute in good faith on an informal basis. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the objecting party may seek appropriate relief from the Administrative Law Judge, the Commissioner of FDA or a reviewing court, and the person asserting confidentiality shall have the burden of proving the same. The parties recognize that in the absence of agreement between counsel, the propriety of a designation of "CONFIDENTIAL" shall be determined by the Administrative Law Judge, the Commissioner of FDA or a reviewing court.
14. Any party herein may request a change in the designation of any information designated as "CONFIDENTIAL." Such request shall be served on the attorneys for the other party, and the Dockets Management Branch. Any such document or thing shall be treated as "CONFIDENTIAL" unless or until the parties resolve the matter by agreement, or by Order of the Administrative Law Judge, the Commissioner of FDA or a reviewing court.
15. This Order shall not be construed so as to prevent any party or its representatives from disclosing or making use of information which:
  - a. appears in a printed publication;
  - b. is a matter of public knowledge;

- c. was obtained from a source or sources not under an obligation of secrecy to the other party; or
  - d. a party or any third party is compelled to disclose by Court Order.
16. Any party for good cause shown may apply to the Administrative Law Judge, the Commissioner of FDA or a reviewing court for a modification of this Protective Order.
17. Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Protective Order shall be deemed to preclude any party from seeking and obtaining, on an appropriate showing, such additional protection with respect to the confidentiality of documents or other discovery material as that party may consider appropriate; nor shall any party be precluded from claiming that any matter designated hereunder is not entitled to protection, or is entitled to a more limited form of protection than designated.
