

Hepatotoxicity Steering Committee Meeting
Rockville Civic Center
Rockville, Maryland
February 5, 2004

8:00 AM	Continental Breakfast	All
8:30 AM	Welcome/Introductions	Lana Pauls
8:40 AM	Brief Background and Meeting Outline	Lana Pauls
8:45 AM	Clinical/Postmarketing: Where Do Elevated Serum Transaminases Come From?	John Senior
9:45 AM	Clinical: The NIH DILI Network Update	Paul Watkins
10:15 AM	BREAK
10:30AM	Clinical: Presentation and Discussion of Proposed Guidance from Health Canada entitled: "Recommendations from the Scientific Advisory Panel Sub-groups on Hepatotoxicity: Hepatotoxicity of Health Products"	Bob Temple
11:15 AM	An overview of approaches to studying risk factors of ALF in the ALF SG	Mark Avigan Will Lee
12:00 PM	Lunch
1:00 PM	Clinical: Review of selected NDAs – Were the Data Sufficiently Collected and Analyzed to Predict Hepatotoxicity?	Lana Pauls
1:30 PM	The Use of Hepatotoxic Signals to Predict the Safety of PPARs	Ken Hastings
2:00 PM	Nomenclature for Liver Injury: An Update and Publication Strategies	Vic Navarro
2:45 PM	Break
3:00 PM	The use of Data Mining to Systematically Identify Hepatotoxic Signals in the Presence of Noise	Ana Szarfman
3:30 PM	Where We Are and Need To Go	R. Temple/S. Ryder
3:45 PM	General Discussion	All
4:00 PM	Adjourn	