HOW TO SUBMIT A NOTICE OF FINAL DISPOSITION OF INVESTIGATIONAL ANIMALS NOT INTENDED FOR IMMEDIATE SLAUGHTER IN ELECTRONIC FORMAT BY E-MAIL

This guidance represents the Agency's current thinking on how to submit a Notice of Final Disposition of Investigational Animals not intended for immediate slaughter in electronic format by e-mail. It does not create or confer any rights for or on any person and does not operate to bind FDA or the public. You can use an alternative approach if the approach satisfies the requirements of the applicable statute and regulations. If you want to discuss an alternative approach, contact the FDA staff responsible for implementing this guidance. If you cannot identify the appropriate FDA staff, call the appropriate number listed on the title page of this guidance.

I. INTRODUCTION

This guidance provides advice to industry regarding the procedures to submit a Notice of Final Disposition of Investigational Animals (NFDA) in electronic format by e-mail to the Center for Veterinary Medicine (CVM)

FDA's guidance documents, including this guidance, do not establish legally enforceable responsibilities. Instead, guidances describe the Agency's current thinking on a topic and should be viewed only as recommendations, unless specific regulatory or statutory requirements are cited. The use of the word "should" in Agency guidances means that something is suggested or recommended, but not required.

CVM monitors the final disposition of animals used to investigate new animal drugs. Monitoring of the final disposition of investigational animals is consistent with CVM's responsibility to protect the public health under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. Disposition refers to the fate of the animals at the conclusion of the study. Examples of animal disposition include slaughtered for food, slaughtered for rendering, returned to the herd, incinerated, or returned to the owner. This information allows CVM to make sure that edible products derived from investigational food producing animals are not used for food unless authorization has been granted. CVM issues a slaughter authorization to new animal drug sponsors (sponsors) which contains the terms under which edible products from such animals may be used for food (21 CFR 511.1(b)(5)). Authorization letters, issued by CVM, request that sponsors submit NFDAs for investigational animals. This guidance gives sponsors procedures to submit NFDAs as e-mail attachments.

The electronic submission of NFDAs is part of the Center's ongoing initiative to provide a method for paperless submissions.

To submit NFDAs electronically, the sponsor should use the NFDA form provided by CVM (FORM FDA 3487² OMB No. 0910-0453). The sponsor should enter the data directly into an Adobe[®] Acrobat[®] form and submit the form to CVM as an Adobe[®] PDF file (compatible with Adobe[®] Acrobat[®] 5.05)³.

This guidance implements provisions of the Government Paperwork Elimination Act, Pub. L. No. 105-277, 112 Stat. 2681 (1998), which requires that executive agencies, by October 21, 2003, provide: (1) for the option of the electronic maintenance, submission, or disclosure of information, if practicable, as a substitute for paper; and (2) for the use and acceptance of electronic signatures when practicable.

An NFDA should be submitted by an e-mail message from the sponsor to CVM. For reasons of security and verifying the sender's identity, the sponsor should register each individual participant, including a sponsor coordinator, and all individuals that will be sending submissions by e-mail, with the Center as outlined in Guidance for Industry #108 "How to Submit Information in Electronic Format by E-Mail" available at the Center's Guidance Page (<http://www.fda.gov/cvm/guidance/published.htm>). CVM will assign an Electronic Submissions System (ESS) password for each participant.

CVM intends to accept only PDF form attachments to the e-mail message. A sponsor should attach only one PDF attachment per e-mail message. The maximum file size for submitting information electronically by e-mail is 50 Megabytes (50 MB). No information should be included in the body of the e-mail message.

Electronic records may be submitted instead of paper records provided the requirements of 21 CFR 11.2 are met. The procedures in this guidance are designed to provide for a means of electronic submission that meet the requirements of Part 11. If a sponsor does not follow this guidance to submit an NFDA electronically, the sponsor should consult with CVM regarding alternative methods for electronic submission that meet the requirements of Part 11 or submit the NFDAs in paper.
