Directions

For optimum infusion, pour 8 oz boiling water over one tea bag and steep for 5 to 10 minutes. For a stronger effect, use 2 tea bags. Due to the naturally occurring mucilage in the herbs, the longer it steeps, the more soothing the tea will be. When your throat is irritated sip throughout the day. To care for a delicate throat, such as for singing or public speaking, drink 2-3 cups per day.

Serving Your Spirit®

In ancient India, yogis developed a sophisticated herbal healing system, a wisdom that Yogi Bhajan brought to the West in 1969 and used to create Yogi Tea. We combine this ancient system with the findings of modern science, choosing ingredients that are certified organic and not genetically modified, to create healing formulas to serve you: body, mind and spirit.

– Yogi Bhajan

To ensure the purity, quality and efficacy of this healing formula, we heat-seal each tea bag and cello-wrap each box.

Yogi Tea® Healing Formula

Honey Lemon Throat Comfort is a naturally sweet herbal supplement tea designed to support the respiratory system and soothe membranes in the trachea irritated by common, everyday stress. Our healing formula is flavored with Honey and Lemon for their naturally sweet tastes. This herbal supplement includes Slippery Elm Bark (Ulmus rubra), a favorite demulcent of Western herbalists prized for its mucilage content and usefulness in relieving minor irritation in the membranes of the throat.* The mucilaginous substances present in this demulcent herb help form a protective, slippery coating along the throat's lining. Our herbal supplement tea also includes Black Cherry Bark for both its soothing effects and sweet cherry flavor. This native North American herb helps suppress spasms and soothes the muscles lining the bronchioles.*

This recipe is augmented with the immunity-enhancing herb Echinacea Root (Echinacea purpurea) and a burst of Peppermint Leaf (Mentha piperita) that supports respiratory function* and provides cool refreshment. Our organic Honey Lemon Throat Comfort tea is a natural way to soothe an irritated throat* with a delicious flavor adults and children will love.

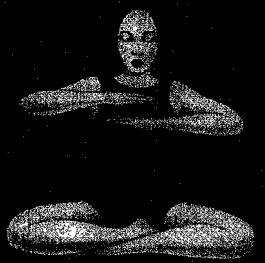
Tropical Thai Shake

For a cool summer shake, prepare a strong pot of Sweet Thai Delight. When cool, add 1 cup vanilla ice cream and 1/4 cup coconut milk and blend. Makes two servings.



Meditation for Self-Renewal

Sit cross-legged or in a chair with your spine straight and feet flat on the floor. Raise your arms so that the hands are in front of your chest, right over left with palms facing down, about 4 inches apart. Close your eyes. Inhale deeply through the "o" of your mouth, expanding the ribcage and diaphragm. Exhale through the nose. Continue for 3-11 minutes. Inhale deeply, hold the breath, and squeeze your body while stretching the spine upwards, then exhale. Repeat 2 more times and relax.

Serving Your Spirit

The story of tea has a wonderful mythology thousands of years old, and it is deeply entwined with the ancient traditions and spiritual practices of the East. Along the banks of the sacred rivers of India, yogis created mysterious herbal recipes with exquisite flavors. Yogi Bhajan brought this knowledge of yoga and herbs to life through the formulation of Yogi Tea, carefully blended to uplift, body and soul. The exotic spices and herbs gathered from all over the world create memorable aromas and tastes that are truly a bridge between past and present. We at Yogi Tea are committed to honoring the gifts of this legacy and to preserving the gifts of our planet. Our teas are made with certified organic ingredients, without genetic modification. Our mission is to serve your spirit.

Sweet Thai Delight™

A young girl was walking in the forest when the sky darkened and a hard rain began to fall. Exposed to the sudden storm, she walked to a small house ahead in a clearing. Smoke rose from the chimney and she sensed an enchanting aroma hanging in the air. An old woman invited her in and offered her a hot cup of sweet-smelling tea. The exquisite blend of coconut and spice filled the girl with delicious warmth and she quickly finished the tea. As the old woman poured a second cup, the girl stared into the swirling, steaming brew and a vision began to take shape. The scent grew stronger, the vision clearer. She saw herself dancing, dressed in a beautiful, flowing gown. She was joined by a man, smiling and gently calling, "My sweet, my sweet," as he held her in a tender embrace. As the vision faded, the girl found herself swaying alone in the forest, the sun shining bright through the tops of the trees, the scent of that sweet delight still lingering in the air.

Morocco Orange Spice

When I reached the desert oasis, I encountered a smiling little boy whose face turned toward the sun. He greeted me with a plump, round orange and said, "Beautiful day, isn't it?" Before I could thank him, he skipped away, giggling. Suddenly, a gentle breeze came, filling my senses with a sweet citrus scent. I felt myself lifted from the ground, the aroma carrying me through the air, all the way to the sun. The shining light filled me with joyous warmth, but when I opened my eyes I was back on the ground amidst an enchanting fragrance. The boy had returned, brewing tea with the tantalizing aromas of orange, cinnamon and ginger. He poured me a cup and I experienced a spicy citrus flavor sent from the sun itself. I smiled to the boy and said, "You were right, it is a beautiful day."
