

Dear Ms. Scudiero,

I would like to express my support for TMS therapy for the treatment of major depression. I have had this illness for over 40 years and thus far I have not been successful in finding any relief of my symptoms. I believe that TMS would provide a minimumally invasive treatment for those of us who have not responded to medications. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely

Greg Martin
Kansas City, KS. 66106