

Attention FDA

1841 '00 AUG 10 AIO:18

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

No Way. If I have to get a hearing test, they won't test your hearing unless you buy hearing aid from them.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

I don't need to go to a doctor as I know what kind of hearing<sup>aid</sup> that I need that's right for me.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

They have no business to do that, I buy what I want.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Yes
