

National Audubon Society

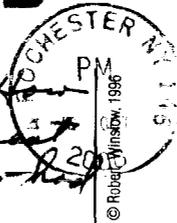

Dear Sir
I am so disgusted. How dare you serve us meat when the animals have had cancer or are sick.

You have a job to do that is to see that our food is safe to eat. If you can't do it right then it's time someone else was in charge. No downed animals for us. Jean Bradley

Our national symbol, the Bald eagle Protected by the Endangered Species Act, the majestic Bald eagle has made a spectacular comeback from the brink of extinction.
