

Attention FDA

0712 '00 APR -6 P1:50

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

No, I should not be forced to take medical or hearing exam before buying a hearing aid.

Yes, if so, then FDA should pay the cost of the exams.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

Without having any such experiences, I can't comment.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

The court should absolutely not take away my right!

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

I should feel free to purchase hearing aids whenever I want.
