

Attention FDA

'00 APR -6 P1:34

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

*Actually, they advertise Tricks: Free hearing test!
With no medical insurance he asked me to put $2000 down and $200.00 per month. (Unions) pay nothing, personell don't pay! my his hearing aids costed $2500 ~~2500.00~~ each. (digital)*

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

*If you would debate:
of all the people in senior centers would go. Their answer is no,*

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No; To deal with hearing-aids: Money is the object.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Yes: They are better than the ones I (bought) while I had a plain Medicaid card. They have made new strides as far as I'm concerned but now I don't have any hearing-a coverage.
