

Attention FDA

0588 '00 APR -6 P1:43

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

Why would a person another hearing test be cause most everybody finds out from there ear Dr that they need an hearing Aid.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

The Government is slowly taking a way our freedom. I was in the Navy four years so maybe we could stay free but I dont think the young people want it that way any more.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Can't I buy things that help me and do not harm me or any body else where I want to?

I am 73 years old this year and have been married 50 years to the same ~~person~~ body so I have been there and back.
