

To Whom It May Concern:

In an effort along with many of my colleagues, I would like to voice my concern on the issue of trans-fatty acids and their overwhelming prevalence in many of the foods in our American diet. I am writing in reference to:

Docket number 94P-0036.

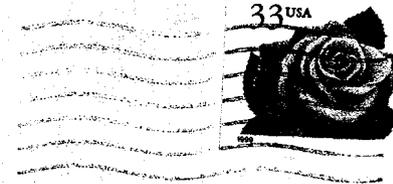

We, as pharmacists would like to see the content of such fatty acids alongside the other fat content information on food labels.

Sincerely, Eric W. Hamon, Registered Pharmacist
