

Attention FDA

4979 '00 MAR 21 A9:41

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam? Yes

No

I have had a medical exam and the prices that I was quoted were so high I couldn't afford the hearing aid so I forgot it

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

I personally cannot drive a person so it is difficult for me now -

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Yes if they are as good as the ones that I got from Eccl hearing solutions, have seen some cheap ones that I would not carry home
