

Attention FDA

1989 '00 MAR 21 A9:42

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

*This is just another way the government is trying to tell us what to do, if so FDA should pay for the exam.
If you are on a fixed income you don't do that.*

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

No, but I know of people that it would.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No, again the government is trying to tell us what we can or cannot do.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

yes I should, we don't need all those middle men to make life so expensive we can't afford as we are on a fixed income.
