

Attention FDA

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

No, I should not be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid, unless the FDA will pay for the exam and the hearing aid.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

Not applicable!

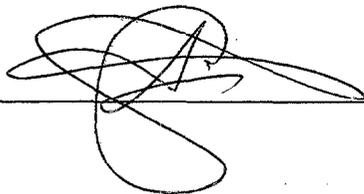

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

Not certainly unless they (FDA) will pay for all my medical exams with no penny to spend on my side.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

I should be allowed besides it's my money. I'm using and not FDA.
