

Attention FDA

5571 '00 MAR 22 AIO :27

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

NO. Don't take away my rights to buy as I choose.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

Some people have to conduct their business by mail, so having to go to a Dr. for a valuation is a hardship.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

NO: poor people's rights are being abused by the rich and the big corporations

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose? Yes, I would like to have medicare help older people pay part of the cost of hearing aids
