

Attention FDA

5633 '00 MAR 22 AIO :33

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

*I should not be forced.
Give the people some rights?*

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

This Country is not a free one, when we are forced to comply with high priced medical care. Should this law come in a working man could not afford an aid. The same with dentures. NOTE BELOW EXAMPLE

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

a dentist charges approx $1,500 for upper and lower plates, which cost $250. dollars for a denture lab to make, Now they want to do this with hearing aids, havent the medical people got enough money yet?

GIVE US A BREAK

I was awarded an aid for my hearing loss through compensation.

Beltone charged $1400 for one aid.
after a medical exam.

I bought an Excell aid for $225
with no exam, and it performs as good if not better, prior to my compensation, I could not afford an aid otherwise and would have to do without.

there are many in this country who cannot afford medical luxuries

Some times I wonder if you people are here to help us, OR HINDER US

PS

I fear the medical people
will win in the end
dispite the protests

they can afford rights. $

almost anything can be made right with a buck in front
of it.
