

Attention FDA

0222 '00 MAY -4 A10:43

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

I have paid over $1,000.⁰⁰ For a so called Hearing aid.

I have since purchased an ear amplifier same as the $1000 ~~and~~ for $300⁰⁰ and it worked same as the 1000⁰⁰, only they sold it me as a sound amplifier.

I can turn it down - same size, battery with on/off -
Do we need a medical RX for Radio ear plug that you can turn on/off low/high?
