

Attention FDA

0239 '00 MAY -4 AIO:45

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam? yes

no they shouldn't have any thing to do with it

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

yes I went to to have hearing test and there equipment didn't work ~~enough~~ and they said so. It cost me for appointment and I had nothing.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

no. I have had several test and I know what wrong with my hearing. and it can't be changed

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Yes - On a small income I could not buy expensive hearing aids. So I would be able to hear at all.
