

Attention FDA

0368 '00 MAY -4 AM 10:02

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

Why pay a Dr. ? for something I know I need.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

Not all the tests I've had in 20 some yrs, are adequate or really do, what they claim they are doing.

I need bone conduction testing, we are all different.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

Why surrender my rights - I'm 69 yrs old + definitely know what works for me.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

yes
