

DATE: February 15, 2001

FROM: Carol Haley, Ph.D.
Deputy Associate Director for Policy and Regulations
Office of the Director
CVM, HFV-6

SUBJECT: Docket 92S-0251

TO: Chief, Dockets Management Branch, HFA-305

Pursuant to 21 CFR Part 11.2(b)(2), and on behalf of the Center for Veterinary Medicine (CVM), we are pleased to add this notification of CVM's readiness to accept electronic submissions for a Notice of Intent to Slaughter for Human Food Purposes (slaughter notices).

Effective date: 2/20/01

The following guidance document describes how to submit information to CVM by electronic submission:

Guidance for Industry (#87): How to Use E-Mail to Submit a Notice of Intent to Slaughter for Human Food Purposes (Final 2/01)

An electronic copy of the guidance documents may be obtained on the Internet from the CVM home page at <http://www.fda.gov/cvm/>. Additional guidance describing acceptance criteria for electronic submissions is contained in the Guidance for Industry #108 entitled "How to Use E-Mail to Submit information to the Center for Veterinary Medicine", which is located at <http://www.fda.gov/cvm/>.

Please place this notification on the official docket, 92S-0251.