Dear Sir/Madam:

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the requirements of Section 403(r) (6) (21 U.S.C. 343(r) (6)) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in accordance with the requirements of 21 CFR 101.93, that Fuji Health Science, Inc. 18000 Horizon Way, Ste. 800 Mount Laurel, NJ 08054 within the past 30 days commenced marketing a dietary supplement bearing the following statements on the label and/or in the labeling:

Bombarded by billions of free radicals every day, our cells are under attack at even the deepest levels of the skin. Astavita Skin Defense Complex is a proprietary formula designed to protect skin from free radicals and includes AstaREAL® astaxanthin as well as tocotrienol.

A formula first developed and used in Japan as internal nutritional support for skin health, Astavita Skin Defense Complex may help improve the appearance of fine wrinkles and improve the moisture level and elasticity of your skin.

Used daily, Astavita Skin Defense Complex may help:
Improve the appearance of fine wrinkles
Improve elasticity of skin
Improve moisture level of skin

Ingredients that are subject of claim: astaxanthin, tocotrienol

Name of supplement: Astavita Skin Defense Complex

The undersigned certifies that the information contained in this notice is complete and accurate and that Fuji Health Science, Inc. has substantiation that the statements are truthful and not misleading.

Sincerely,

Scott Lichterman
